

FIDM Voices

FIDM Instructor and Student

Student in the Beauty Industry Program presenting her project

"As working business people and designers, the contact with FIDM Students renews and invigorates us. They're tremendous!"

Dina Morgan: Chairperson, Interior Design

"You want a career in Merchandising? FIDM is the place to go to college. The contacts FIDM has built up over a quarter of a century are incredible. It can open doors for you that other colleges can't."

Silvia Guzman: Merchandise Marketing Major

"Working with instructors who are already in the industry has put me in a mind-set where I know exactly what I want to do when I graduate. Coming here has prepared me for the hands-on work I desire."

Ema Muramoto, Graphic Design Major

"I was in my 40s when I came to FIDM, but I went for it. I love what I'm doing!"

Caroline Baker: Interior Design Major

"It is wonderful to be in an environment where both students and teachers are involved in fashion, art, and design as a way of life. The atmosphere here is one of joyful creativity."

Nikhil Mehra: Fashion Design Major

"For me, it was a big advantage that FIDM has so many majors related to each other. That way everyone and everything feeds off each other. There are so many exciting, passionate students and teachers around. It's inspiring!"

Kim Culmone: Textile Design Major

"I already had a degree, but that wasn't enough to do what I wanted. Continuing my education in Graphic Design at FIDM has added the final touch to be in a career that I love. FIDM is a really supportive place."

Sophia Choi: Graphic Design Major

"Students often tell us that while at FIDM they discovered talents and creative dimensions they never knew they had, and they grew personally and artistically in ways they never dreamed possible. It's a great feeling to hear comments like these."

Willis Popenoe: Assistant Chairperson, General Studies Department