

Housing

Your home away from home.

Moving to a new city or just living on your own for the first time can be a challenging and rewarding experience. The FIDM Housing Office is here to guide you every step of the way.

A student in her apartment near the FIDM Campus.

Roommates enjoy their balcony overlooking the FIDM Campus.

Whether you want to be paired up with a roommate or you just want information about renting an apartment near campus, FIDM is here to give you all the answers. A full-time Housing Coordinator works with you before you arrive to help you find the right living space for your pocketbook and personality. In addition to FIDM Student Housing, we screen and recommend a variety of privately owned and operated housing options. From a high-rise building with city views to a garden apartment with hardwood floors, there is an option for everyone. Start packing for your new world.

Some FIDM housing has views of Downtown L.A.