

FIDM Museum & Library, Inc.

FIDM Museum & Galleries

The FIDM Museum & Galleries bring you extraordinary exhibitions you won't see anywhere else.

Costume designed by Trisha Biggar and worn by Natalie Portman as Queen Amidala in Star Wars: EPISODE I - The Phantom Menace as shown in the exhibition Dressing a Galaxy: The Costumes of Star Wars at the FIDM Museum & Galleries.

Laliq Bottles, Fashion Makes Scents exhibition, 2006
The Annette Green Perfume Collection, FIDM Museum & Galleries

The Museum & Galleries on FIDM's Los Angeles campus are open for special exhibitions of unique costumes, textiles, and art installations. Annually, the FIDM Museum & Galleries presents The Art of Motion Picture Costume Design Exhibition featuring costumes from the previous year's most acclaimed films. Exhibitions are on display throughout the year and range from traveling shows to FIDM-developed installations. The FIDM Museum Shop showcases unique one-of-a-kind accessories and home décor featuring the work of FIDM Alumni.

To visit the online FIDM Museum Shop, or for more information, including our exhibition calendar and hours of operation, visit the FIDM Museum & Galleries website at www.fashionmuseum.org

Academy Award® winning costume by Colleen Atwood from the film Memoirs of a Geisha, exhibited at the FIDM Museum & Galleries.