

THEATRE COSTUME DESIGN

STAGE CRAFT Whether for a Broadway musical or a Shakespearean production, the art of Costume Design is of paramount importance in telling a story and an arena for great invention and spectacular feats of the imagination. Costumes, jewelry, accessories, and décor must be compelling, relevant, and historically accurate. Who said you don't need a little drama in your life?

Putting the finishing touches on a costume

WHAT WE TEACH

Our program teaches students all aspects of the craft, from costume design and construction to script analysis and the history of costume and décor.

KNOWLEDGE IS POWER

FIDM DANCES WITH THE STARS, CIRCUS & MOULIN ROUGE Three of the themes from past Debut Theatre Costume Design collections

DID YOU KNOW? Costumes created by Advanced Theatre Costume Design Students are featured in the Debut Runway Show and Fashion Gala.

A CLOSER LOOK

The Advanced Study Program in Theatre Costume Design is an intense, concentrated program designed to encompass the many aspects of costuming from the legitimate stage to television, film, and video. Students study costume crafts, costume design, costume construction, wardrobing, rendering, script analysis and breakdown, and the history of costume and décor. The Theatre Costume Design specialization prepares the exceptional student to enter the rigorous field of costuming for theatre, film, television, video, and spectacle.

ADVANCED STUDY

DESN 3050	History of Décor & Costume I	3
DESN 3080	Historical Costume Cutting I	3
DESN 3250	Theatre Analysis	3
DESN 3280	Costume Design for Theatre	3
DESN 3350	History of Décor & Costume II	3
DESN 3380	Historical Costume Cutting II	3
DESN 3450	Costume Crafts I	3
DESN 3530	Drawing & Rendering for the Theatre	3
DESN 3580	Wardrobing for Film & TV	3
DESN 3620	Historical Costume Cutting III	3
DESN 3650	History of Décor & Costume III	3
DESN 3680	Costume Crafts II	3
DESN 3780	Costume Design for Film & TV	3
DESN 3840	Theatre Practice (Internship)	6
	Total Units of Credit	45

This 9-month program starts each Summer. Prerequisites: FIDM Degree in Fashion Design.