

Consumer Disclosures for Enrolled and Prospective Students

Information for Disclosure to Enrolled or Prospective Students and Current and Prospective FIDM Employees as applicable – as required by the 1998 Amendments to the Higher Education Act.

The following information may be found on the FIDM website or in one or more of the following documents: the FIDM College Catalog, the FIDM Student Handbook, or the FIDM Student Consumer Handbook. These documents may be obtained from one or more of these locations: the Admissions office, the Student Advisement Office, the Financial Aid Office and the Academic Development Office. Upon request, a printed copy of any of the disclosure information listed below will be provided to any enrolled student; and for a prospective student, the requested information will be made available prior to the student's enrolling or entering into any financial obligation with FIDM.

Please be advised that the direct web addresses and specific catalog page numbers listed for the documents below may change over time, but the most current document will always be linked to the Student Consumer Disclosure page on the FIDM website.
